Dear Al:

I had heard the interesting news that you had purchased my brother's house. I am sure you will like it. I have had many pleasant times there myself.

I trust that your operation has gone off successfully and that we will get together either here or in New York in the very near future.

Clover and I saw Jayne and Charlie in Europe, had a good ride in their new plane, and a delightful week end with them at Antibes.

Faithfully,

Dear Allan,

Perhaps you have heard that we have bought your brother's house on 91st St. We hope to move in the middle of December. In any event, when you come to N.Y., it may be a familiar spot to visit us.

I am to have an operation tomorrow but expect to be up and about again soon. If I come to Washington, will try to see you both.

Sincerely yours,

Al (Barach)
